

REMARKS

Applicants have amended claims 43 and 45 and canceled claims 36-39. The Examiner's comments and rejections are addressed below.

The 35 U.S.C. § 112 Rejections

The Examiner has rejected claim 45 under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Specifically, the Examiner stated that the limitation "said output module" lacked antecedent basis support. Accordingly, Applicants have amended claim 45 to recite "said central processing unit comprises a memory that stores an output module that directs said voltage data to be stored onto said removable memory." This amendment cures the antecedent basis problem. Therefore, Applicants respectfully request withdrawal of this rejection and allowance of claim 45.

The 35 U.S.C. § 103 Rejections

The Examiner has rejected claims 36-39 under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 4,557,271 ("Stoller") in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,393,317 ("Fukuda"). However, because Applicants have canceled claims 36-39, these rejections are now moot. Therefore, Applicants respectfully request the withdrawal of these rejections.

Allowable Subject Matter

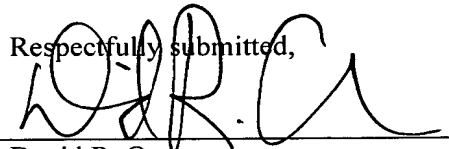

The Examiner has allowed claims 3-9, 11-35, 40-44 and 46-51. However, Applicants have amended claim 43 by reciting "said central processing unit comprising a memory that stores an output module that controls the menu of an LCD display." This claim amendment clarifies how a memory stores an output module by connecting it with the central processing unit. Further, as this claim is dependent upon an allowed claim that has not been amended by this Amendment, this claim is still allowable.

Conclusion

In light of the above amendments and remarks, Applicants believe that all of the currently pending claims are in condition for allowance, and a Notice of Allowance is respectfully requested. The Examiner is invited to call the undersigned attorney if a telephone call could help resolve any remaining items.
